

Sawala

Steve Vinton, June 14, 2007

Godfrey just talked on the phone with the Chief Inspector and tomorrow he will be sending two inspectors to inspect our school at Sawala.

We've done everything humanly possible to prepare for the inspection so all that is left now is to see what kind of mood they will actually be in when they come tomorrow. What we do know is that our lady inspector won't be coming this time. In fact she won't even be able to be involved in the process once those guys take their report back to the office. Turns out she is on medical leave and in the hospital in Dar so she won't be able to be involved in the inspection process at all this time around.

We have sixteen days left before the June 30th deadline.
