

Just perfect

Steve Vinton, April 25, 2008

After all the tests today, the doctors concluded that everything with Jonathan's heart looks "just perfect" so we're thankful that we should be able to leave Sunday evening to begin our trip back to Tanzania. We're thrilled! Thanks tons for your prayers. We'd love to "chat" and perhaps share more, but we've got an awful lot of work to get finished before we get on that airplane. Just wanted to let you all know though! Love, Steve & Susan
